trailers for Defendant Walmart such that Defendant Walmart is liable for Defendant Salkikie's actions.

4. On or about April 7, 2011, Plaintiff Muir was operating a motor vehicle on Eastbound on the Glenn Highway near milepost 78.5 when a Kenworth tractor and cargo trailer operated by Defendants came into her lane of travel and collided with Muir's vehicle.

5. Despite the collision, Defendant Salikie failed to stop and left the scene of the accident.

6. The cause of the collision was the negligent operation of the Kenworth by Defendants, including but not limited to the operation of the vehicle at an unsafe speed for driving conditions of snow on the roadway, the failure to maintain the Kenworth tractor and trailer in the westbound lane of traffic, the failure to keep a proper lookout for oncoming traffic, and the failure to maintain control of the vehicle.
